I hope you all had a chance to come out to the Wine and Blues Festival this last weekend. This is one of those events that is not to be missed. The weather was a little on the warm side but that did not deter people from showing up. The music was amazing as well as the many choices of wine. And the many gift and food vendors, there was something for everyone.

Many thanks go out to Ellen for the great job she does to organize the festival. As I watched her on the go I could tell she really enjoys doing this, she is definitely in her element. Thanks also go out to everyone who helped with the set up, the clean up and everything in between; it takes a great team to pull off an event like this. It always amazes me how this club comes together to help.

Our Fleet Captain, Robin, has been doing a fantastic job with all the cruises this year, and in a week or so we will be heading to Rock Hall for our annual Labor Day Cruise. It will be a great time for sure. I hear there is a pub crawl planned. There had better be a stop at Maggie's; you don't want to miss that place!

A week or so ago several of us took our RVs to Watkins Glen for the races. This is the 3rd year for Diane and me and we always have a great time. This year though, there had been plenty of rain there and we all got stuck in the mud. Some of us twice, once going in to the camp ground and then again coming out. Luckily they had some really big tractors there to help us out. The mud did not put a damper on the weekend and we will be there again next year. But now its time for us to get back to being on The Bay.

Ron

Black Book: Bit of Nautical Background

From the 1300's - a collection of maritime laws and conduct that became known as the Black Book of the Admiralty. The punishments for offenses were harsh including drowning, starvation, and marooning for serious offenses such as repeatedly sleeping on watch. As used today, if you're listed in someone's black book, you have offended them in some way.

Hello EYC friends,

Another month of summer has flown by and fall will be here before we know it. That being said, this past weekend was amazing at the club. It started with Caterer Mike cooking an amazing seafood dinner. This event lived up to its name of Seafood Spectacular. This dinner helped to raise money for EYC's Thursday dinner at the 3C's to support incoming 3C's Commodore Gary Blankenship. The Eastern Bayside Blues and Wine festival followed this great evening. Beautiful weather, great music and smooth wine filled this amazing day. Sunday then became the day of rest, we sat on our beautiful beach and soaked up the summer rays and just looked back at the events of the weekend. You would think I am reading a novel or the story of some rich person but no it was all at EYC. We should really be proud of what we do as a club. I have said it before but no one can match the amazing ability to throw a party or have a good time like the members of EYC.

Keeping in the theme of the weekend, I would like to thank several people who made this happen. First I would like to thank Caterer Mike for the outstanding food, DJ Frank for the music on Friday evening. Looking at the Wine fest I would really like to thank Ellen and Karen for their hard work in making sure this was a successful event. I know they always rally a large team of support to help but they really deserve a huge thanks for all the planning that they put into this event. Lastly I would like to thank the Gulls for the amazing breakfast on Sunday. Adam and Mickey and their team of fabulous chefs provided what every drinker needs the day after a wine fest, good hearty food that makes you feel like your getting a great big hug inside. I know it helped me. I am continually remind of the amazing spirit that our club has, every first class organization is full of great people and EYC exemplifies that. I continue to see this every time that I am around the club. We are a truly blessed club.

Vice Commodore, Brian

Rear-Commodore, Brian Rockstroh
